TO THE WHIGS OF THE UNION. The following Address is eloquent in its truthfulness and fervent devotion to the interests of the Whig party and of the nation. It should be read and well remembered by every Whig of our broad land, and should guide him to duty and a certain triumph. How admirable is its spirit, when compared with the "rule or union" declarations unwisely made by some of our erring friends. If the lesson inculcated by this Address shall sink deep into the hearts of the men of our party, their success will be certain. Honor to the Whigs of Pennsylvania, from whom it has proceeded!

Address of the Whig State Central Com-

The Whigs of Pennsylvania, profoundly sensible of the importance of the great political strug-gle they are about to enter, beg leave respect-fully to submit, through their State central committee, to their fellow-Whigs of the Union, a statement of their position, and their reasons for

As Pennsylvania has never yet cast her elec-toral vote in vain, and as she is likely to become, as heretofore, the arbiter of the contest, and, of consequence, the battle-ground, it is proper for those who have the best means to know the ground and its circumstances to impart their knowledge candidly and honestly to their breth-ren of the same faith and party.

The history of the past fully establishes the falsity of the proposition that republics are un-grateful. The memories of Washington, Jackson, Harrison, and Taylor teach us that the American republic has never yet been ungrateful to those who have led her armies, defended her rights, and adorned her name with an imperishable renown. This is in accordance with the nature of man-in accordance with a noble and generous impulse. And as long as human hearts are constituted as now, the man who has denied himself the comforts of home—foregone the pleasures of wealth—invested the strength of his body and the powers of his mind-risked health and life in the defence of his country, will always receive, at the hands of his fellow-citizens, the highest earthly honors and rewards, when the opportunity offers to confer them.

In fidelity to the constitution, and in gratitude to its defenders, Pennsylvania acknowledges no superior. Within the broad limits of this great emocratic empire there is to be found no commonwealth more loyal and patriotic. And while it is very certain that no man who is not true to the constitution in all its parts and the Union in its integrity can stand even the shadow of a chance to obtain her electoral vote, it is equally certain that no man, Whig or Democrat, has se much the confidence and affection of her people as Winfield Scott. Our adversaries know this, and most earnestly and bitterly deprecate his nomination. But we are aware that, if they had the good fortune to possess such a candidate, there would be no divided counsels among them in regard to his nomination. If General Scott belonged to the ranks of the enemy, instead of being an honest, brave, and reliable Whig, the first Baltimore Convention would nominate him by acclamation.

Shall we be less wise than our adversaries? Shall we sacrifice the victory that stretches out before us? Shall we suffer the Whig banner to trail again in defeat, and the Capitol of the nation to be once more entirely given up to those whose principles are, in our opinion, opposed to its prosperity and its greatness? The decision rests with the Whig National Convention.

And while we pledge ourselves to an honest, zealous, and enthusiastic support of the nominee of that Convention, whoever he may be-for we are accustomed to look above the standard-bearer to the standard-we most kindly and earnestly entreat our fellow-Whigs to remember that in Pennsylvania—the battle-ground—the name of Scott is as invincible as on the battle-fields of Mexico. But though he is the choice of her 200,000 Whigs, and of thousands of her Democrats, we will leave unmade no effort, however fruitless, and unexerted no influence, however barren of victory, in behalf of either of his great competitors. Our only inquiries shall be-Is he a Whig? Is he true to the constitution?

Of Millard Fillmore, the patriotic and distinguished gentleman who now so creditably occu-pies the loftiest official position on the earth, as Whigs we are proud.

Of Daniel Webster, whose fame is not even limited by the bounds of civilization-who, as orator and statesman, stands almost without a rival in the world—peerless and unapproachable in the might and splendor of his genius—as Americans we are proud. His name shall be handed down as a boast and a heritage to our children. But even for these great and glorious Whigs we are unwilling to hazard the triumph of our great and more glorious principles. For that we conceive to be of infinitely more consequence than the political fortunes of any man, however good, able, or distinguished he may be. Small indeed becomes the destiny of the individual in comparison with the welfare of the republic. With Winfield Scott, the Whigs of the United States can achieve a certain and easy victory. With any other candidate it might be considered doubtful, if not desperate—not because the Whig party, as a national party, is the weaker, but because, in the present nicely-balanced condition of parties, it is difficult for either to be victorious in two successive contests. We repeat, certain and easy victory. For the people believe, with a unanimity unprecedented, that he cannot be beat-And this state of the public mind insures the result, as any one knows who is at all skilled in political events.

And who shall say that Winfield Scott is not fit for the high station to which we would elevate him? Has any single important act of his life evinced a want of ability? Who shall say that the commanding genius which has raised his name to the loftiest rank among the immortal names of earth will not prove equal to any position or any crisis that may arise in the civil affairs of men? Do the humble battlements of Vera Cruz, the stormed heights of the Mexican mountains, or the American flag waving in tri-umph over a conquered empire, attest this want of ability? We leave history and fame to answer. In view of the important contest we are about to enter, and for the sake of the cherished principles for which we have so long contended, side by side, under one banner, and with one battlecry, the Whigs of Pennsylvania call upon the Whigs of the United States (for they know neither North nor South) to unite with them in another mighty and successful effort to overthrow again and forever the pernicious principles of their common adversary.

By resolution of the State central committee. DAVID TAGGART, Chairman.

BAITIMORE, Sept. 11, 1851.

Messrs. Mortimer & Monobray: I feel it a duty to make known the benefits I have derived from Dr. Hampton's Tincture. For a length of time I have been subject to great prostration of muscular power, and great debility of the nervous system, accompanied with palpitation and fluttering of the heart. I had such sudden attacks that on one occasion I could scarcely get home. I making mention of my case to a friend, he referred me to Joseph K. Stapleton, esq., an old and highly respectable citizen of Baltimore, who had used the Tincture under similar circumstances. I called on Mr. Stapleton, and, after an interview of some minutes, I was fully satisfied of the medical virtues of the Tincture, from the evidence before me, of his own person, who, for some time previous, indicated a failing state of health, but now a hearty, hale appearance, with the activity health, but now a hearty, hale appearance, with the activity of youth. I immediately commenced using the Tincture, and, before I took the contents of one bottle, my strength was renewed, and I can walk as brisk and am as active as I noas renewed, and I can woulk as brisk and am as active as I was twenty years ago. This Tineture is the grand restorative of the digestive organs, which when destroyed, the whole system is in a state of suffering.

I do assort it is no humbug, but is, in reality, what it is represented to be by Dr. Hampton, the inventor.

ERAUSER'S PATENT CLOVER-SEED HAR-

S BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR THE PIRST TIME The strikty is beyond comparison with any other farming implement new in use. It takes the seed from the field, extring the straw or grass all standing. It weight two hundred and 615 pounds, is drawn by one horse, and gathers from the field produced, is drawn by one horse, and gathers from ten to two bre serves per day. The fingers, or teeth, each all the heads, the revolving knives cut them off and three three heads in the heads are then loaded three three field withing to expense as twenty-are field withing the halos distributed to expert to the mill for elevaning, thus distributed the lakes three-fourths, and swring all the seed. This machine comes so low that every farmer will have $6$, and pays the manufacturer 200 per cent.

This is to certify that Mr. G. J. Naylor has gathered clover off of a sixteen-acre field of mine, which has been pastured two months with ten hand of cattle, and it produced six busicels and a half and one pock of send. I gave him two-thirds for gathering and cleaning. I think his machine is first-rate, and answers all the purpose that is intended.

NEHEMIAB NICHOLSON.

The following points out the profitable nature KRAUSER'S PATENT CLOVER-SEED HARVESTER. We have conversed with a number of Farmers, and they are of opinion that there are at least 2,000 acres in each township in Canadan or Gloucester county, New Jetsey. Admitting there are but 1,000, it is said that each are will yield from 154 to 3 bachels. Reducing it to a certainty of yielding but 1 binhel per acre, what will it cost to gather and thresh 1,000 acres?

Cost of harvesting, &c., 1,000 acres..... .8500

have found them to agree unanagement,

Perhaps no invention offers greater inducements for a profitable investment than the Harvester. For an enterprising young man, of good business habits, a large sum of money could without doubt be realized from the sale of rights in the different States of the Union not yet disposed of. By calling at this office, it can be demonstrated satisfactorily that men of modegate capital could not choose a better or more money-paying business.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE! HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

THE celebrated German and Indian Physicians, Doctors BROTHERS & GRAY, have established a permanent medical office in this city, after having travelled the world over in search of knowledge; and, having spent seven years among the Indians for the purpose of getting a thorough knowledge of botany, they flatter themselves qualified to alleviate and cure all complaints to which the human family are subject. We flatter ourselves that, without asking a question, we will tell all who favor us with a call their complaints and symptoms, and guaranty an easy and speedly cure. A decided advantage we have over other medical men is in the manner we determine the nature and location of the disease, which is by the urine. We require at least two ounces of the first in the morning. The many facilities afforded us by hospital and private practice in this and foreign countries warrant us in assuring those who are suffering from disease that our treatment is attended with unusually favorable results: for, "to know the disease is half the cure." The Doctors' medicines are wholly vegetable, and prepared by themselves.

References can be had at our office from persons living in all the western counties of the State of New York, Pennsylvania, Canada, &c., who, having been given up to die by the Faculty, hearing of us, and availing themselves of our skill, have been restored to health.

Diseases successfully treated at this office are the following: Consumption, both nervous and pulmonary: also, Coughs, Colds, Bronchids, and all pains arising from the chest, lungs, or liver; all cases of Nervous Weakness, Neuralgia, Hypochondriacal complaints; all cases of female weakness and obstructions; Dyspepsia, Sait Rheum, Syphilis, Ples, Gravel, and all Serofulous complaints; Mercurial Diseases, Reumatism, and all complaints which require the blood to be pure and healthy, and to assist nature to perform her natural functions.

vocacy of the new doctrine of European intervention, which rung through all this section of the country on the arrival among us of Louis Kossuth, as the fact that the late Democratic National Convention (though never so anxious to catch votes) judged it wise and expedient not even so much as to allude to the man or his creed. Another fact worthy of record is, that the leading men of the Democratic party, who were first and foremost in the Hungarian crusade—Cass and Douglas among the rest—were struck from Michigan, last winter, at Washington—ultra Kossuthian, it will be remembered—if the truth ever comes out, it will be seen, were heavy mill-stones about their necks in the Baltimore Convention. So far, then, let this great lesson be read and remembered. The great American heart, warm as it is in its sympathies and affections, is not so easily perverted as demagogues and mere panderers for popularity think it is. The masses of our people have a mind of their own, and an intelligence universal enough in its practical application to guard them against the mischievous expedients of demagogues, who vainly seek to practise upon their sympathies to advance selfish The fever which was stirred up in this section of the country when the Hungarian first came among us, we thus see clearer now than ever, was of the most ephemeral character. It passed away as idly as the wind. It was a mere ripple ic opinion, which the waves of Reason and Reflection have long since swept away Not that the deep and sincere sympathy the people of this republic have, and always will nave, for foreign nations struggling to be free, is the less strong or impulsive; not that the genrous hospitality which has ever been reserved for the unfortunate of other lands is not now as ready to be dispensed as freely as ever; but that our own domestic demagogues may see that hob by-riding, in the end, is as unprofitable as it is demeaning and undignified, we contend that the significant, deep-meaning silence of the Baltimore Convention conveys a moral from which all fu-

[New York Express. The Democratic Platform.

The manifesto of principles put forth by the recent Democratic Convention in this city reiterates those negative dogmas so often announced by that party. Opposition to the protective policy, to internal improvements by the general government, to a national bank, to the distribution of the proceeds of the public land sales among the States-these and similar quotations from the records of former political contests are reproduced, as though Democratic doctrines had ceive confirmation anew at the hands of the Convention; and we find mention made of them accordingly, although it is so seldom that they are published nowadays that many who take them as cardinal articles of faith have no very accurate knowledge of their terms or purport. The generalized style of expression which characterizes the Convention's manifesto gives a lati-
